

Brief Report of Webinar on “Why and How to write paper/proposal for Research, Projects, Patents and Consultancy”

Name of the Event: Webinar - “Why and How to write paper/proposal for Research, Projects, Patents and Consultancy”

Date of the Event: 21.04.2020 (Tuesday) 5:00pm to 6.00pm

Venue: Online mode – BSACIST

Objective: To promote paper /proposal for research, patent, consultancy and training etc.

Speaker Detail: Dr. T. Harinarayana, Director (ESPAC), BSARCIST

Event Report:

Prof. T. Harinarayana, Director (ESPAC) has provided the assistance on how to write the paper for publications, how to find out the problems for research work in thrust areas and also discussed the following point with the faculty members

Points discussed during the webinar:

- Why and How to write papers/proposals for Research, Projects, Patents and Consultancy
- Basic 4 Steps in Writing a Research Paper
- How to write a paper and publish it too....
- How to write a project proposal? - It Is Easy Just Follow 5 Steps
- Budget and General Guidelines on project proposals
- List of Government Funding Agencies
- Sample examples of national funding agencies
- Sample examples of International funding agencies
- Case Studies: Personal Experience in paper publications, patents and research projects.

Outcome of the event

Nearly 40 numbers of internal faculties from all departments has attended the webinar. Finally, he motivated all the participants to write more research articles and publish in the reputed journals and approach government agencies with sponsored project proposals and also file the patents.